

Professor Dr Jaroslaw Makal works at the Department of Theoretical Electrotechnics and Metrology, at Faculty of Electrical Engineering of Bialystok University of Technology (BUT), Poland. Dr. Makal's activities include researches in the field of metrology and metrology education at all levels of studies (undergraduate, master and PhD). He was involved in the elaboration and introduction of the education quality system at Bialystok University of Technology. He realized a few projects in the frame of Erasmus and Leonardo Da Vinci Programs within the international consortium of higher education institutions, and he currently works as a the faculty coordinator for Erasmus+ Programme.